Junior-Senior Banquet

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held May 1, 1959, in the school auditorium with the class of 1960 as hosts to the class of 1959, Faculty, and members of the Board of Education.

"Star Dust" was the theme used for decorations, programs, and menus. Gary Ferguson was the toastmaster, and Mrs. Owen, the class sponsor.

Class History

In the fall of 1956, forty-two eager, green freshmen entered the portals of Douglass High School. Their first serious job was to elect officers. Jack Diekman was elected president; Mike McEnulty, vice-president; Elva McBee, secretary; and George Bannon, reporter. They learned that high school was guided by the Student Council, consequently, elected Shirley Caster to that place of honor. Mr. Broyles was the Freshman sponsor.

To their surprise they found that they were to be lowly slaves of the seniors for initiation and must sing senior praises to the tune of Mickey Mouse. That night they furnished entertainment for their masters and other students of D.H.S. Now they were accepted as members of the high school and set to work to help in the various activities and organizations.

At the end of the year, David Learned, a Freshman had won the coveted Honor King award. Elva McBee and Pat Haynes represented the class in the one-act play in the Drama Festival.

By September, 1957, five classmates had dropped but others enrolled to make the sophomore enrollment forty-five. Jack Dikeman was elected president; Shirley Caster, vice president; Sandra Reheis, secretary and Elva McBee, reporter. The Sophomore student council representatives were Shirley Caster, Sue Valentine, Gary Ferguson and Jack Dikeman. Miss Lutz was the Sophomore class sponsor.

Again David Learned honored his class by receiving the Honor King award. Sports were occupying the extra time of most of the boys as they lent their support to their respective teams. Larry Myers won second place in the State Wrestling Tournament.

In 1958, when they became upper-classmen the enrollment had decreased to thirty-five. Several classmates had moved. Class officers elected this year were: Gary Ferguson, president; George Bannon, vice president; Betty McCurry, secretary; and Brent Hilyard, reporter. Those representing the junior class in student council were: Elva McBee, Sandra Reheis, Shirley Caster, George Bannon, Bill Schaul and Jack Diekman. The class sponsor was Mrs. Owen.

This was the year to choose the class motto, colors and flower. After much debating the rose was named the flower; the colors of aqua and silver were chosen and the motto, "Forever Climbing."

The class play, "Funny Brats," directed by Mrs. Owen was given December 1, 1958 in the school auditorium. It proved fun and entertainment for the whole cast.

Stars studded the auditorium when the juniors entertained the seniors at the annual junior-senior banquet. The theme, "Stardust," provided a beautiful setting for this unforgettable evening.

That summer Sandra Reheis represented the class at the legion-sponsored Girls' State, and Jack Diekman attended Boys' State.

Shirley Caster was crowned football queen and Pat Haynes and Sandra Reheis were among the attendants. Elva McBee reigned as basketball queen with Pat Haynes, Patsy McNown, and Sue Valentine as attendants.

Pat Haynes and Elva McBee lent their efforts to athletics by doing a good job as cheerleaders. Junior boys were again among the leaders in sports. Keith Seal and Jack Diekman received honorable mention on the S.C.K.L. basketball team. Larry Myers won state championship in wrestling. Bobby Ahlerich placed first, Bob Wright second, and Richard Valentine and Bill Schaul third in the regional tournament.

The fall of 1959 found the class members back to D.H.S. knowing this was to be the last year of their wonderful time together. There were 35 enrolled. Fourteen of the number: Bobby Ahlerich, George Bannon, Byron Baum, Corrine Cook, Jack Diekman, Leota Haselwood, Pat Haynes, Brent Hilyard, Betty McCurry, Sandra Reheis, Patsy McNown, Keith Seal, John Woody, and Robert Zimmerman had started this journey together in the first grade.

Shirley Caster left the class to become Mrs. Don McBee and Kay McDaniels became Mrs. O.T. Rush. David Learned had moved to Belle Plaine. Three new members: Thelma Williamson, Janna Porter, and Gary Coltharp joined us; Gary left during the year to join the army. The whole class was saddened by the absence of their classmate, John Shaver, who had drowned during the summer.

Officers were chosen as guides for their last year. Gary Ferguson was elected president; Jack Diekman, vice president; Betty McCurry, secretary; George Bannon, reporter. Mr. Schreiner was the senior class sponsor.

Jack Diekman was elected president of the student council; Gary Ferguson, vice president; Sue Valentine and Mike McEnulty were other representatives.

Those bringing honor to the class as royalty were: Sandra Reheis who was annual queen. Elva McBee and Jack Diekman, who reigned as honor queen and king. Pat Haynes, Betty McCurry, Patsy McNown and Sue Valentine were queen attendants for football and basketball.

In extracurricular activities seniors were well represented with Sandra Reheis serving as president of the pep club, Brent Hilyard as president of the dramatics club, Jack Diekman as president of the math club, George Bannon as president of the D-club and supported by Bill Schaul as vice president; Jack Diekman as secretary-treasurer and Dale Reynolds as sergeant-at-arms. Elva McBee and Patsy McNown were great helpers as cheerleaders in leading the teams to a very rewarding year.

Jack Diekman and Keith Seal were "regulars" on the "A" basketball team while Mike McEnulty and Gary Ferguson were key players on the "B" team which won the League championship. Bobby Ahlerich was the only senior to win First in his weight class at the state wrestling tournament, Bob Wright placed second and Dale Reynolds and Larry Myers each got a third. Richard Valentine made one point by advancing to second round.

Several money-making projects were carried out so that a senior skip-day could climax the four years in Douglass High School.

Senior Masters and Freshman Slaves

FRESHMAN INITIATION HELD

All sorts of weird freshmen were seen running around the halls of D.H.S. Friday, September 18. This was the annual freshman initiation day.

The freshmen wore beautiful "shortie" pajamas (for the boys), long underwear (for the girls), onion necklaces, grotesque faces of make-up, and "stylish" washed, unset, and uncombed hair-dos. The freshman "slaves" were kept busy by their senior "masters" all day polishing shoes, and boots, sharpening pencils, carrying books, and getting drinks of water for their thirsty "masters."

Seventh hour the student body, led by the band and freshmen, marched up town for a Pep Rally.

The celebration lasted through the football game that evening, and afterward, a sock hop was held in the gym in their honor.

The 1959 football season was very successful with the Bulldogs losing only one league game, to Belle Plaine.

The team made a very fine showing in all their games although at times the supporting fans had anxious moments.

There was only one major injury this year. Richard Valentine, fullback, had his elbow dislocated in the Rose Hill game and he was unable to finish the season.

Dan McEnulty went to fullback and Harold House came up from "B" end to "A" string left end.

Eight Seniors played their last game for the Bulldogs in the South Haven game winding up for them four years of high school football.

On November 16 the coaches in the SCKL met and selected the League teams. The Bulldogs on the first team were: Edward Potter, guard; Bill Schaul, tackle; and George Bannon, halfback. The second string boys were: Robert Ahlerich, end; and Richard Valentine, fullback. Receiving honorable mention were: Robert Wright, center; Mike McEnulty, quarterback; and Jack Diekman, halfback.

On October 9, 1959 following the Douglass-Leon football game, Janet Darter was crowned queen of the 1959-1960 football season. She received the crown and traditional kiss from her escort, Jack Diekman.

The queen was attired in a turquoise and brown plaid suit and wore brown accessories. Her corsage consisted of purple and gold giant mums.

The Queen and her attendants greeted the football fans at the half of the game. Following the coronation a student dance was held.

The candidates for the basketball queen were chosen by the student body and the queen was then elected by the basketball boys.

Carolyn Bannon was the team's choice and was crowned between the "B" and "A" games with Conway Springs on February 9.

Honor King and Queen

Every year at the close of the first semester honor students are chosen. Every student in school fills in his own sheet counting his own grades and activity points. The highest ones are then checked in the office and the winners announced.

Honor points are given as follows--4 points for each A received each six weeks period. (Only solid subjects are counted)--2 points for each B received and 2 points for each activity in which they actually participate.

Jack Diekman won with 82 points and Elva McBee with 76 points.

Both Jack and Elva are excellent students and participate in all activities in which they were eligible. They are popular with students and highly respected by faculty members.

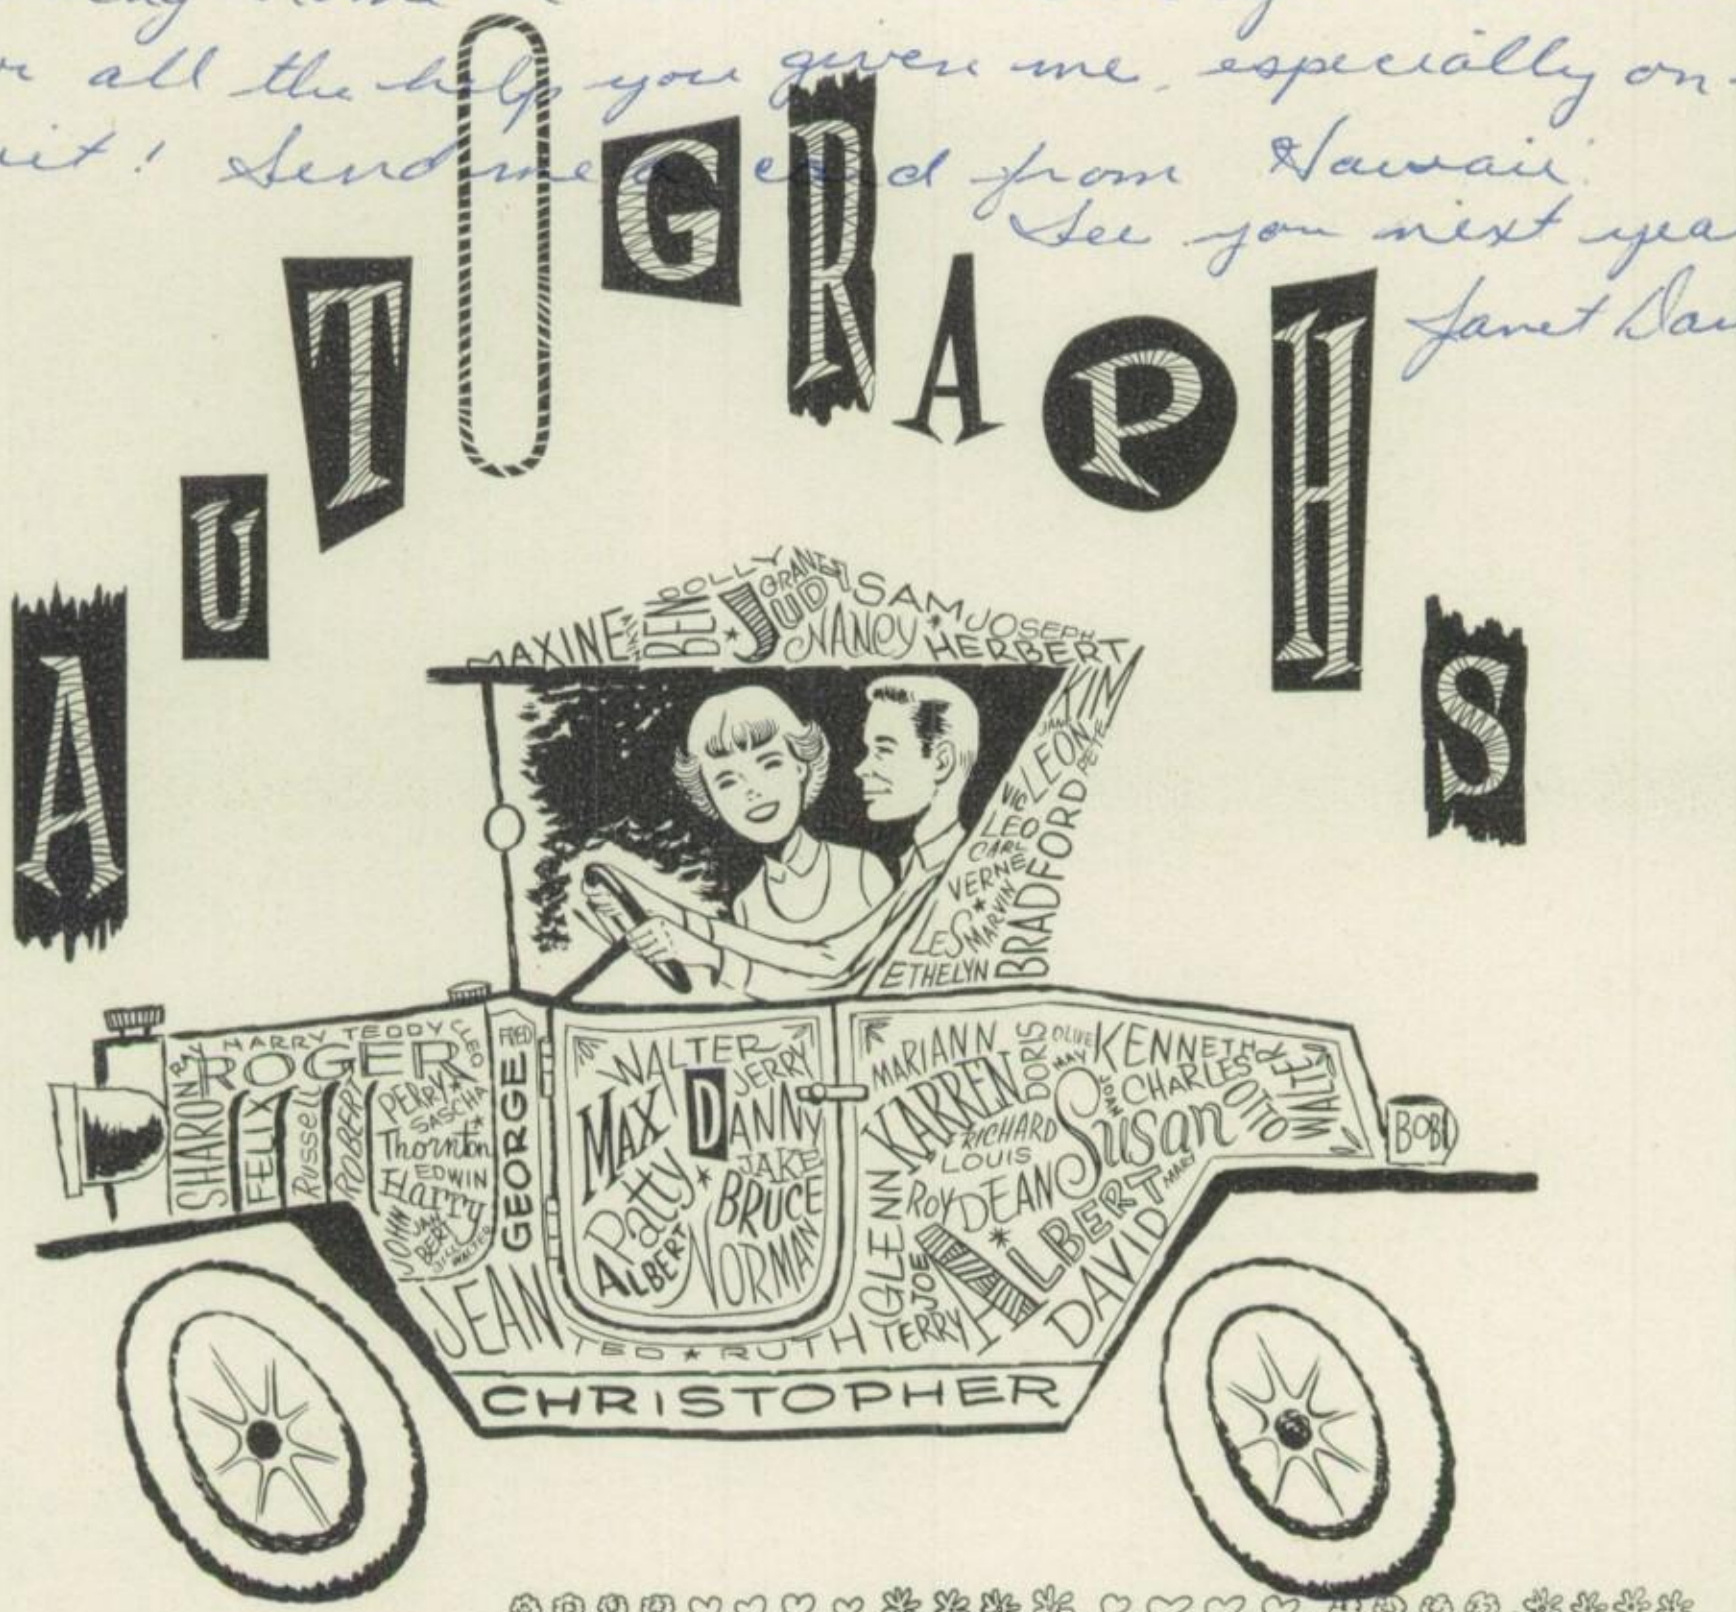
TAB BOOKS

Mrs. Owen,

I've enjoyed being in your classes and being in dramatics. I'm going to miss taking home ec. next. Thanks you so much for all the help you given me, especially on my suit! Send me a card from Hawaii.

See you next year.

Janet Carter



True friends are like diamonds,
Precious but rare;
False friends like autumn leaves.
Scattered everywhere.

P.S. I have enjoyed having you be my home ec. teacher. Good luck in the future.

One of your pupils,
Cheryl Hilyard

To a really nice teacher.
When the walls of earth have fallen
And this road no more we trod.
May your name in gold be written,
And the autograph of God.

Love always,
Joan Schmidt

I'll always remember you in my prayers.
Thanks for all of them. You have been so many things
to me as a friend, a counselor
and a teacher.
Always,
Marilyn Hall

To one of my best teachers, I will
see you in Home Ec.
next year.

A friend always
Jy Wallingford

You're a very nice teacher to have
and I look forward
to your Home Ec. class
next year.

Joyce Cobb

To a very nice teacher,
I have enjoyed being in your Home Ec. Class and I will always remember
you. I wish I could take Home Ec next year but under the circumstances I can't.

A friend always
Linda Reheis

To a teacher and a friend
may you have the best of luck always

Janet L Jenkins

To a wonderful Home Ec. teacher who has taught me a lot this year and I hope you will again in the years to come
all the luck in the world
Loretta Bannon

To a wonderful and a sweet Home Ec teacher. Lots of Luck
See you next year.
Lonnie Mauk

To a real swell Home Ec. teacher. Who I've enjoyed having your class. I've learned a lot this year. I hope the rest of the girls learned as much as I did.
a friend
Georgia

To a swell and real swell teacher who I have learned a lot this year. Ellen Brooks

Mrs. Owens,
You have been a wonderful teacher to have these past years. I'll never forget the year I stayed in with you for skipping school. See you next year, you swell.
Love
Janet E.

To a very nice Home Ec. teacher who I've enjoyed having a class under this year. I have learned a lot from.
Sharn Stanley

To a very wonderful Home Ec. teacher that I have enjoyed having. See you next year.
Lots of Luck,
Patricia

Mrs. Owens
To a very wonderful Home Ec. teacher who I have enjoyed having in your class. I learned a lot from you. Thanks for everything.
